The races at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon were run over a track that could be considered neither fast nor heavy. It was just fair going, and for that reason the performance of S. Sanford & Sons' great four-year-old Chuctanunda, by Laureate— La Tosca, was all the more praiseworthy. It was in the handicap for all ages, at seven furlongs, down the Futurity course, that Chuctanunda was asked to take up 130 pounds and give all the way from seven to thirty-one pounds to his company. In the betting he was an odds-on favorite, with Frank Farrell's Col. Padden and J. P. Kraner's twoyear-old Golden Maxim ruling next in favor et eights. For nearly half a mile Belle of Lexington, 20 to 1, showed in front, with the favorite close to her flanks. But when the bend in the track was reached, Odom took Chuctanunda to the front, the Belle Meanwhile J. W. Schorr's Ordnung, a 12 to 1 shot, who had come from away back with a tremendous turn of speed, passed Belle of Lexington opposite the betting ring and hallenged the favorite. The weight was challenged the lavorite. He weight was just beginning to tell on the son of Laureate so that he was inclined to falter, but when Odom drew his whip and used it the colt made a gallant spurt and got the decision by a nose. Belle of Lexington was third, three lengths behind. Chuctanunda's time was 126.2-5, four-fifths of a second behind the track record established last year by W. C. Whitney's Nasurunm, with 115 pounds up. The biggest disappointment of the day was the defeat of August Belmont's Hastings colt Lord of the Vale in the Dash Stakes for two-year-olds at five furlones straightaway. This colt because he ran Savable to a head in the Futurity was made an odds-on favorite and carried an ocean of money. The Albemarle Stables' Hinyar—Bracelet colt Invincible, neglected at 25 to 1, led all the way, running Cinquevalli into the ground at the last furlong and then defeating Blue Ribbon in a flerce drive by a head. The latter took the place from Lord of the Vale by a neck. Mr. Belmont's colt not receiving the best kind of a ride from Bullman. Vardarm was a neck behind Lord of the Vale. The time, 59, was the best of the meeting and was three-fifths of a second behind Hatasoo's track record. just beginning to tell on the son of Laureate so neck behind Lord of the Vale. The time, 0.59, was the best of the meeting and was three-fifths of a second behind Hatasoo's track record.

There was another black mark set against Blues's record when the ill-tempered son of Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue II burned up thousands in the Turf Handicap at a mile and quarter on the grass. Blues was giving away weight, but he was always an odds-on favorite. But he sulked almost the entire distance, being a bad last at the top of the stretch, where Martin subjected him to the lash with enough vigor to make him finish just outside the money. The Western colt Articulate, who got in with an impost of 10 pounds, ran away from Daly in the stretch and won pulled up by three lengths in 2:97, Daly finishing two lengths before Par Excellence, who beat Blues a neck. Col. Bill blew up in the stretch.

In a field of fifteen in the first race for platers at six furionss, Andrew Miller's Nevyri, ore took the lead at the quarter pole and kept it, though Shea had to put him under a shart drive to win by a length and a half from the favorite. Stamping Ground 1t was a close 2st for third money. Dramatist 25 to 1, getting the verdict by a whisker, with Scoffer 30 to 1, beating Cincinnatus, 20 to 1, similarly.

The third Time, 143 3.5.

The third race, at a mile and a furiong, was another overthrow for the backers of layorites when Satire, third choice, led from barrier to wire, and won ridden out by three lengths, the equal favorites. Boaster and Lady Sterling, taking the rest of the purse.

The fifth race drew sixteen maidens to the post, the distance being a mile John A Drake's Alabarch, the favorite, had to take punishment before he succeeded in winning on the post by a head from the 50 to 1 shot. The Talisman.

DRAKE WINS ANOTHER BUNDLE

WESTERN TURFMAN AND HIS FRIENDS CLEAN UP $100,000.

Back Chuctanunda, Alabarch and Articulate Successfully-Farrell and Johnson Lose Heavily on Blues A Woman in the Betting Ring-Turf Talk.

John A. Drake and his friends climbed into the Western millionaire's big automo-bile after the races yesterday afternoon and rode away in high spirits. It was a great day for them, as far as cashing bets Drake's clever jockey, Lucien Lyne, who rode the winners of the last three races in splendid fashion. The Westerners began operations by backing Chuctanunda to win the second race. Drake himself dropped $2,000 on Boaster in the third event, but is said to have put a good bet across the board on Invincible at 25 to 1 in the Dash Stakes, as Lyne had the mounts. But it was in the fifth and sixth races that Drake & Co. did their prettiest. Drake had his three-year-old gelding Alabarch in the fifth race, with Lyne up, and his commissioners got to work early. They snapped up 4 to 1 so swiftly that the price dropped in a jiffy until Alabarch was an 8 to 5 favorite. Even then the Drake so that when Alabareh won by a short head there was jubilation in the Westerners' camp. As soon as the betting on the last race began Drake's commissioners began to unbelt on Articulate. They got in some instances as much as 15 to 1, but the colt was soon quoted all over the ring at eights. As he galloped home victorious, Drake laughed heartily and invited half a dozen intimates to take the trip to the city in his flying machine. Frank Farrell and Dave Johnson, on the Frank Farrell and Dave Johnson, on the other hand, were recorded among the big losers. Both backed Farrell's Blues to win the Turf Handicap, Farrell, remembering Blues's splendid race in the Twin City Handicap last Monday, when the son of Sir Dixon ran second to W. C. Whitney's Gunfire, concluded that a $10,000 wager was about the proper thing. He got 9 to 10 for his money Johnson placed $7,000 on Blues with Joe Ullman and got even money. The Messrs, Sanford did not bet on their colt Chuctanunda, but the talent did to the extent of thousands. Sanford did not bet on their colt Chuctanunda, but the talent did to the extent of thousands. $7,000 alone being taken out of the Ullman book. Kid Weller, on his own hook, backed the Laureata colt all over the ring and won handsomely. Ullman, having a line on the Drake horse, laid against articulate. He took a $1,000 bet from "Pittsburg Phil" on Col Bill, giving 4 to 1. Had Blue Ribbon won the Dash Stakes, Ullman would have been hit hard. He loid 12 to 1 against the brother to Blues and Blue Girl and accepted a $1,000 wager from Jack McGinnis at these figures. Pittsburg Phil" stood to win a fortune on Blue Ribbon, backing the colt all three ways. In this race Eddie Burke plunged on Incubator. As only two favorites won, the 19g as a whole made heavy winnings, the defeat of Lord of the Vale and Blues proving of immense profit.

winnings, the defeat of Lord of the Vale and Blues proving of immense profit.

Invincible, the winner of the Dash Stakes, is owned by H. T. Oxnard, the "Sugar King," who runs his horses in the name of the Albemarle Stable. The coil worked so fast in his preparatory work for the Futurity that he was quite generously backed to win that rich stake. But as he ran below expectations then, the talent forgot all about him yesterday. On the blackboard early in the afternoon there were three added starters for the Dash Stakes, John E. Madden's Dauphin and Yardarm, and Miles Finlen's Charles of the Dash Stakes, John E. Madden's Charles of the Pash Stakes, John E. Madden's Dauphin and Unterlock were scratched later Invincible ran the five furlongs in 0.50, which, by the way, was a a new record for the race Clarence H. hair "Really, I didn't." And she walked away with the detective, who escorted her to a seat in the grand stand.

When Satire won the third race yesterday he was bid up from $700 to $1.500 by F. A. Pope, owner of Boaster, the second horse, H. R. Schaffer, after keeping Satire with an extra 35 bid, retaliated by putting in a claim for Boaster, who was entered at $600. There was a hist tip in circulation on J. G. Follansbee's Moon Daisy in the fifth race vesterday. Odom lead the mount and a barrel of money went on. Trainer Mason said that the filly had worked fast erough to win, but that she needed schooling at the barrier. When the start was made. Moon Daisy broke with the others, but as there was considerable crowding Odom pulled up. As a result the filly was lengths out of it at the cuarter, but she made up a lot of ground and will bear watching another time.

Jockeys Shaw and Landry were each fined $50 in the fifth race for running at the barrier, while Redfern got a $25 fine for twisting in the same event. Amorous, Marrion Etta and Cuckoo have been placed of the schooling list.

Among the visitors at the track yesterday were Cols. Barney Dreyfuss and Harry were cols.

VISITORS WIN AT CLEVELAND. IN THE BASEBALL WORLD. Bad Weather Prevents Race for Beston Trophy at Matinee Meet.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 4 -Not a single blue ribbon was captured by the members of the Gentlemen's Driving Club this afternoon at the opening day of the Intercity Matines races, the honors going to Pittsburg, Syracuse and Boston.

Only three events were run off, this being due to the weather elements. The heavy rains early on Thursday morning had placed the track in bad shape for racing and when it was time to call the first event the big ring was a sea of mud, while thousands of people were out, filling every corner of the big stand waiting to see the races. Cold and strong winds made it uncomfortable for all.

There was a conference of the race com-mittee before the track dried out, and it was decided to hold three races during the after-noon, so as not to disappoint the immense crowd. The Boston challenge trophy event which was the third on the card was laid over until to-morrow afternoon.

Despite the heavy track, which is always a great hindrance for speed, especially to wagon, the three races furnished an excellent, wagon, the three races furnished an excellent, exciting afternoon's sport and the large crowd cheered the victors. Only one horse from the Gentlemen's Driving Club was able to win a ribbon and this was Earl Wilton, driven by the president, Harry K. Devereux. Bud Stout carried off the 2:15 pace in straight heats. This was the first race, and the Syracuse turfmen gave their member a grand ovation as he dismounted from the wagon. Miss Duke, who is owned by A. S. Bigelow, President of the Boston Driving Club, the organization that started this big intercity racing, won the third blue ribbon of the day, but this was only due to the fine reinsmanship of W. B. Farmer, who waited until the stretch before making his drive.

Billy Madden and His Fighters Coming Home.

Billy Madden and his two hig pugilists Gus Ruhlin and Denver Ed Martin, are coming home. According to a letter to THE SUN. the trio will be back in this city within the next two weeks. They were in Paris when last heard from. From that place they will proceed to Switzerland and then sail for America. Madden has had a rather successful trip. Both Ruhlin and Martin, who have foil trip. Both Ruhlin and Martin, who have appeared in the principal cities of England Ireland. Wales, Scotland and France, have proved exceptional drawing cards. Martin's contests in England, against Sandy Ferguson, Bob Armstrong and Frank Craig, the "Harlem Coffee Cooler," added to the negro's reputation and upon his arrival here he will be in a position to demand matches with any of the heavyweights. Madden says that the first thing he intends to do when he gets back to the United States will be to look up Jim Jeffries and induce the champion to meet either Ruhlin or Martin. If the brawny Boilermaker ignores Madden's men, Billy adds that he will go after the other heavy scrappers and see what he can do in the way of matches.

NEW YORKS BEATEN IN A GAME MARRED BY KICKING.

New Pitcher Holds Brooklyns Down to Two Hite—Only One Run Scored in Eighteen Innings in Boston—Quakers Siug Out a Victory Over St. Louis-Notes.

The New Yorks lost their fifth straight game yesterday, the Cincinnatis beating them, and it was another one-run defeat. The Chicagos whitewashed Brooklyn and two remarkable games were played between Boston and Pittsburg. Only one run was made in the two games and the Bostons made. it. The Philadelphias slugged their way to victory over St. Louis. Cincinnati, 4: New York, 3. Chicago, 1: Brooklyn, 0.

Cincinnati. .58 35 .519 Philadelphia .48 66 .422 Cincinnati. .58 35 .500 New York. .39 74 .345 Cincinnatis yesterday was embellished by a good deal of lively playing and marred by a good deal of lively playing and marred by a good deal of lively playing and marred by a good deal of lively playing and marred by a good deal of rowdy kicking. No less than eight players kicked in one way or another at decisions, the transgressors of the rules intended to advance sportsmanlike strife being Poole, Beckley, Kelley, Steinfeldt. Donlin, Seyomur. Cronin and Brodie. In the latter part of the game the lively playing became enjoyable, because the kicking ceased. Beckley roared like a wild animal over a decision at first in the first inning, and Kelley took a share in the silly fault finding. These two broke out when McGann beat out an infield hit and Irwin said safe. In the fourthinning Kelley, Steinfeldt and Seymour kicked over a base decision. Seymour coming in from centre field to growl. Donlin in left field yelled and rolled over on the ground at a decision in the same inning. In addition to this clownish proceeding he lawed at the plate umpire, Latham, a good deal. Cronin grumbled over a called ball and Brodie added to the kicking nulsance by Jabbering his disapproval over a third-base decision.

The game was one of ticklish situations and odd mix-ups and the New Yorks lost, although they outbatted the Reds more than two to one. Cronin pitched a strong game, but the two runs the Cincinnatis got in the third inning, through errors by O'Neill and Smith, were too great a handicap to be overcome. Poole hit for three bases in this inning, with Steinfeldt on first. Steinfeldt fell after he turned third base and chased back to third, only to find Poole there. Dunn and McGraw had returned the ball to the plate and Steinfeldt tooked like a sure victim, but O'Neill threw wild to McGraw to catch Poole and Steinfeldt scored after all. Things looked prosperous for the New Yorks in the ninth, when Cincinnati subdued the locals with

cricago, 1: Brooklyn, 0

The Chicagos had a left-hander from Troy in the box yesterday at Washington Park and what he did not do to Brooklyn is not worth mentioning. He shut the home team out, held them down to two hits, one ascratch, and did not give a base on balls. It was the most successful debut ever seen here. Slagle's single, Farrell's muff of a thrown ball and Kling's two-bagger gave the Chicagos the only run of the game.
